Tilted Torch: But Wait! There's More!!

Malibu and I have eased our way into 2011 but now Tilted Torch is ready to take the year on by storm! Come hang out under the big top at the Red Palace on Friday, March 4th with an absolutely amazing lineup from near and far. This show will truly highlight variety in our nation's capital! Plus, Malibu and I are working on a new act and we're going places we've never gone before!! Mark your calendar and get advance tix (save money!)!!Step right up for an irresistible evening of sinful delights and breathtaking circus entertainment! Tilted Torch’s unbelievable cast of characters will have you rolling in the aisles and leave your jaw on the floor. But this ain’t no ShamWow! Our show features the edgy burlesque and vaudeville of OuiOui Nonnon, ukulele tunes from DC’s sexy bally broad Maureen Andary, comedic contortion that will twist your funny bone by Jonathan Burns, crazy antics by one half of the World Famous Pop Tarts, burlesque's good girl Stella Sweet, poi spinning that indulges your sweet tooth by Malibu, and the undeniable queen of burlesque glasswalking, Miss Joule. The rousing ringmaster, Shortstaxx, will be running this dramatic night under the big top. But wait! There’s more! We have a game, a raffle, and fantastic prizes! And go-go dancing by the delightful and delicious DD Cupcakes!! Don’t miss this one-night-only event. Tickets are on sale. Act now!
